

Friendship Diagnosis Questions:

Where are you at? Prayerfully reflect on the current status of your relationships within fellow friends of Jesus

1. Who knows how you are growing spiritually or if you are struggling in your faith?
2. When's the last time you followed up with someone on how they are doing spiritually?
3. Who in your life is able to question your motives?
4. Who do you call when you have learned something exciting in God's Word?
5. Who is praying for what you truly need? (they actually know what you need, where you are struggling)
6. Who is sharpening you? (mind, heart, body, soul, relationships, spiritually)
7. And who are you sharpening?
8. Who knows your passions, gifts, and calling well enough that they can challenge you in how you are using them or growing them?
9. When is the last time you specifically felt "spurred on" to acts of love and good deeds by a fellow Christian?
10. Who do you feel comfortable praying with? Who DO you pray with?
11. Who knows you enough to challenge you to grow, but loves you enough to accept you where you are?
12. Who walks with you?
