More Wisdom Hunting Over the Summer:

Attend a Public Hearing. We'll simply meet and listen to selections of the wisdom books read aloud by others. This offers a unique way of experiencing the wisdom books. Date/time TBD.

Gather for Songs of Wisdom. The wisdom books have inspired many songs, from lament to reflection to celebration. There will be an opportunity to gather to sing, share, and listen to these "wisdom" songs, which is a profound way of engaging the hunt for wisdom. Date/time TBD.

Explore More. As we go, we may suggest further reading or listening to enhance your hunt. But you may also find songs, essays, novels, podcasts, movies, or books that have connected with the wisdom hunt that you'll want to share with others.

Choose Your Own Adventure. Take initiative in the wisdom hunt and do something creative in response to Proverbs, Job, and Ecclesiastes. Produce art, photography, write a song, poem, or reflection essay, invite others into something engaging and creative as a way of exploring further the wisdom you are discovering.
